

Envelope Styles

With thousands of different styles of envelopes on the market, it can sometimes be a bit overwhelming to look at them all at once. That's where styles come in—by helping you to narrow down the exact type of envelope to fit your needs. Common styles include:

Commercials Style

Commercials are the most common style of business envelopes. They're typically used for most correspondence and billing, with the most popular being the #10. The sizes of commercials range from a #6-1/4 (smallest) to a #14 (largest). Commercials are open side envelopes, with or without windows.

Catalogs and Booklets

Open End Catalogs open on the short dimension, and Open Side Booklets open on the long dimension. Both styles typically have standard gum, Pull & Seal or Latex Seal to seal their contents. Available in white wove & brown kraft. First Class Border available in many stock sizes.

Bangtail

Bangtail envelopes are self-contained marketing vehicles that include a detachable coupon directly on the envelope. #8 Bangtail & #9 Bangtail available.

Florist

Florist envelopes fit small cards perfectly to promote your customer's business. Measures 3" x 4-1/2" and available with or without window.

Coin/Teller Helper

A variety of small envelopes, each with a unique purpose. We have two coin sizes and eight popular teller styles. Non-standard sizes and styles are also available.

Reusable

Great for banks, rental facilities, post offices, condos or government agencies. Made of a heavy-duty kraft stock.

Remittance/Dual Purpose

These envelopes are manufactured with side seams and a traditional remoistening seal. Used for ordering & remittance. #6-3/4 comes with a perf to be used as a dual purpose, to be pulled off and mailed back.

Available in 6-1/4, 6-3/4 and #9.

Church Tithing

Tithing envelopes will accommodate checks and currency without folding to fit. Customize with the church and organization information.

Currency (Inner/Outer)

Currency gift envelopes are the perfect size to hold cash and checks.

Great marketing tool for banks and credit unions.

Credit Card Sleeve

Sleeves fit securely in wallet card slots and purses and are proven to protect your customer's privacy and secure their data. Sleeves come in two sizes: 2-1/4" x 3-1/2" and 2-3/8" x 3-1/2"

Announcements

Announcement envelopes have deep square flaps with side seams. They are used with cards, informal mailings, social and commercial announcements. This style envelope is enhanced by the use of many kinds of paper stocks.

Letterhead

Complementing its wide variety of envelope lines, we offer a vast array of letterhead stock to provide a consistent image.
